The sacrament of confession will be continuously available throughout the Forty Hours, suspended only during Masses and Friday midnight - 5am Saturday morning.

All are welcome to attend the Forty Hours devotion for as long or short a period as desired. It can be good, if you are able, to spend some time on each of the three days participating in the devotion. The opening Mass on Friday at 5.30pm is a particularly solemn and moving celebration in which all are warmly invited to participate.
